Catholic Liturgy

New Format

The Society for Catholic Liturgy is pleased to introduce a new format for its annual conference that will enable the event to become a center of liturgical reflection and discussion to benefit the whole Church.

Cardinal Paul Poupard of the Pontifical Commission for Culture will address the Society on Benedict and Culture

The conference will consist of two tracks of presentations, with the keynote and plenary sessions being held in common.

Track I will consist of academic papers from scholars and professionals in the various fields from which the SCL membership is drawn.

Track II will be pastoral presentations for clergy, diocesan employees, and parish staff engaged in the liturgical life of the Church.

Keynote speaker Dr. Alcuin Reid
Noted liturgical scholar
